

Greater Austin

Charter Chapter

It's that time again! The 18th Annual Texas Conference for Women in Austin is rapidly approaching, and we would like to offer our neighboring ICF Chapters the opportunity to engage with the attendees at this sold-out event. You will have the chance to provide pro-bono coaching services to more than 7,500 industry leaders, decision-makers, and entrepreneurs from around the state.

Please consider committing your time and expertise to make an impact at the Texas Women's Conference and represent the International Coaching Federation. We would love to demonstrate and educate the public regarding the benefits and transformational power of professional coaching.

We are looking for 6 coaches each from our partnering ICF Chapters to serve at this year's conference. You can find all the pertinent details below.
